Druthers

I somehow find myself back in the miracle
at peace with everything tho I have my druthers

Peace with covid tho I'd druther everyone were healthy Peace with racial hatred tho I'd druther love and acceptance Peace with Trump tho I'd druther he were voted out or yes, got covid and dropped dead tho I don't really wish for that

If I wish for anything it's the highest good for all tho in a way
and ultimately we already have that

Everything that is
is exactly as it is
Is it not?
Sure, let's do our bit
to improve things
But what's more crazy-making than hating what is?

Which would you druther
peace or misery?
