

Election Fraud

To those who feel our election was rigged Relax guys, it's just your turn

I still feel what happened in 2000 was fraudulent with brother Jeb and his minions pulling the strings in Florida and a corrupt Supreme Court blocking a free and fair election

And both Gore and Clinton won the popular vote by millions Where's the justice in that?

I know after 2000 many Democrats stopped voting Let's hope you guys do the same

Or how about this, we start electing people of integrity on both sides of the aisle? We went first

Or best of all, let's dissolve our 'representative government' and go straight to Direct Democracy

If Trump weren't such a divisive, delusional, egotistical imbecile he would have had a second term

And how could he have won the first if the enemy had such control over the elections?

But nothing I say will matter
So nurse your grievances for as long as you like

Life goes on and, hopefully, gets better
