

Saving Grace

So many precious pieces
around the world

Christian love
turned to hate Muslim passion
run amok
Jewish rectitude
ossified stiff Hindu vastness
out of balance Buddhist balance
frozen in ritual Indigenous Earth honor
actualization lost

So many precious pieces
missing everywhere

It took a Siberian Seeress great granddaughter
to the last in line
of the wisest worst
to provide them
to give back what has always been what we've been duped out of by that very lineage lying dormant, submerged, forgotten deep within till now
the eleventh hour
of our greatest need

And the world reawakens and we remember
her purpose
